Dear Ben:

I would like to express my deep appreciation for your hospitality and the excellent briefings and tours that your people provided. The quality of the presentations was high and the content was both instructive and absorbing. It is imperative that our two organizations work closely together in both the collection and analysis spheres. I am confident that this kind of exchange will help to promote that goal. Again let me thank you for a most enjoyable and productive visit.

Sincerely,

/s/ WJC
